Thought for the month!

June is busting out all over. Busting can be thoughts, movement or just going forward. Which one applies to you?

Next step...

Well, this is the month of a new path. I have found a non for profit that I can share my skill set with on a volunteer basis and an employer that I can work casually with, again, hopefully, sharing my skills. It would not me honest to say that this in not a little scary or is it that it is just because it is new. Well I guess we will have to wait till next month to find out. Training starts this week so the learning curve continues.

Here is a story from my heart.

Hop in the car filled with your inherited family and off to a graduation at the same place that my son graduated from some years ago. Close your eyes and I can see my Dad sitting their proud of his grandson. Thanks for the moment.
